

"Illusions"

"Illusions," currently starring Simone Shapland, is an unprecedented, visually dazzling magic production show that brings established, international success to your cruise line or event.

Your guests and clients will be astonished and amazed by "Illusions," remarkably enjoying it's sixth consecutive year with Costa Cruise lines, consistently delighting audiences in North America, Europe and Asia.

Treat your audiences to the unique novelty of a female magician and the ingenuity of incorporating the on-board production into a proven, clever, full-evening magic show that imaginatively intertwines dance, illusion and audiovisual effects throughout.

When you engage "Illusions" you are presenting an original magic production show that is very different in style, presentation and format to other shows provided in your on-board cruise entertainment package or event. Guests will experience spellbinding, remarkable entertainment that will not be forgotten.

Your clients will enjoy a visual, bewitching, intriguing magic production, that physically, artistically and technically create entertaining scenarios; literally bringing pictures, props and stories to life through magic, music, song and illusion.

Precise magic casting, the show's superb performance standards, awe-inspiring magic and dance will beguile and bewitch your audiences providing an exceptional, original, invaluable asset to your entertainment package and event.

